Dear Mr. Jones:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA no. 2015-000182), dated November 26, 2014, in which you requested the following:

“[a] copy of correspondence from United States Senator Ted Cruz or his staff and the response to the correspondence from January 2013 through present. I believe the correspondence are most likely to be held by your Office of Congressional Affairs or the office of the Executive Secretariat and likely tracked within a correspondence management system. I am specifically looking for correspondence regarding policy, legislation, or regulations, recommendations for executive branch positions or appointments, or support or opposition to federal funding for programs, projects, or companies.”

After a careful search of relevant files, GSA could not locate any records within the scope of your request. Since the agency does not have any records, this does not constitute a denial of records. However, you have the right to appeal the adequacy of the Agency's search. To do so, you must write within 120 days of your receipt of this letter to the following address:

U.S. General Services Administration
FOIA Requester Service Center (H1C)
1800 F St. NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405

You should include a copy of your original request, a copy of this letter, and a brief explanation of why you believe GSA should have responsive documents. Both the appeal letter and envelope should be marked “Freedom of Information Act Appeal.”

1800 F. Street, NW
Washington, DC 20405
